

Ájttega

The ancestors

Ájttega, "The ancestors" in lulesami language, is a dance and joik production that invites the audience to Sápmi. It's a performance based on the artists personal stories. Through yoik and dance you will travel to the places where the ancestors has wandered and paved the way for the society we live in today. An indigenous people who want to preserve Sápmi and its nature to future generations.

Ájttega is a performance that presents Sami culture in an innovative way with respect for its history, heritage and tradition. The show has its basis and inspiration from "the Sami village between the rivers", such as nature sounds, yoik, costume and dance.

The Sami; a people with a heavy history who have have undergone cultural violence now want to show what it is they struggle to preserve. Welcome to a strong performance with power from mother nature herself!

Trailers and more information can be found on invisiblepeople.se

Contact information

Email. booking@invisiblepeople.se Tel. +4670 898 00 55

Production

Target group: Adults, recommended from 11 years

Room: Performance area 8 x 8 m, prefers hall with even floor space / blackbox

Ceiling height: 3 m

Playing time: 50 min

Construction / demolition time: approx. 3 h / 1.5 h

Blackout: Yes

Maximum audience: 80 or more after agreement

Number of participants: 2 dancers, 1 yoik artist, 1 technician

Carrying aid: 1-2 people when loading and unloading equipment

Price: 1st 2.500€, 2nd 2.000€ (same day and place) excluding VAT / performance. Costs for travel, accommodation & allowances will be added.

Extras: Workshops are available

Music & light: Gustaf Nygren

Costume: Lise Tapio Pittja

Idea and choreography: Liv Aira